SESSION ON LANGUAGE AND COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Course Title	Importance of Nonverbal communication with the ecosystem
Date of Activity:	12/11/2022	Nature of Activity: (Language and communication skills)
Resource Person:	Mr. Amar Shinde
Company Name:	Magic Bus Foundation
Objective for conducting the Activity	The objective of nonverbal communication with the ecosystem is to establish and enhance meaningful connections and interactions with the environment, emphasizing the use of nonverbal cues and signals. This includes fostering understanding, respect, and harmony between individuals and their surrounding ecosystems, promoting sustainable practices, and contributing to positive environmental impact through nonverbal means.
No. of participants	68

Program Summary: Importance of Nonverbal communication with the ecosystem.

The activity on "Nonverbal Communication with the Ecosystem" was conducted by Dr. D.Y. Patil School of Management, Pune, under the guidance of our esteemed Director, Dr. E. B. Khedkar. The event was coordinated by Prof. Chetan Khedkar, the Activity Coordinator, and saw active participation from faculty members.

Mr. Amar Shinde, a distinguished expert in the field of nonverbal communication, was invited as the keynote speaker. Mr. Amar Shinde initiated the session by providing a comprehensive overview of nonverbal communication and its significance in our daily interactions. He highlighted its role in conveying emotions, building relationships, and navigating diverse ecosystems.

The discussion extended to the observation of nonverbal communication in the natural world. Participants explored how animals, plants, and ecosystems communicate without spoken language, drawing parallels to human communication.

The session explored how human activities and communication choices affect the ecosystem and, in turn, how the ecosystem communicates its responses.

Participants engaged in hands-on activities and workshops to develop a practical understanding of nonverbal communication. These exercises allowed them to explore the subtleties of body language, facial expressions, and environmental cues.
