CAREER COUNSELLING SESSION

Course Title	Data Analytics using Power BI & Tableau
Date of Activity:	5/2/2023	Nature of Activity: Career Counselling
Resource Person :	Mr. Kuldeep Patil
Company Name:	Autoflow Technologies
Objective for conducting the activity	The objectives of Data Analytics/Business Analytics using Power BI & Tableau include: Develop the ability to create compelling and informative visualizations using Power BI and Tableau to effectively communicate data-driven insights. Apply data analytics to solve real-world business problems, aligning insights with organizational goals and strategies. Gain knowledge and skills in predictive analytics, using data to forecast trends and make proactive business decisions.
No. of participants	55

Prof. Debashree Jana, the Activity Coordinator, efficiently coordinated the event with the active involvement of faculty members.

Program Outcomes:

The outcome of a data analytics session using Power BI and Tableau can vary depending on several factors including the specific goals of the session, the data being analyzed, and the skills of the analysts involved. However, generally, you can expect several key outcomes:

- Insightful Visualizations: Both Power BI and Tableau excel in creating visually appealing and insightful dashboards and reports. Analysts will likely produce a variety of charts, graphs, and other visualizations to represent the data in a meaningful way.

- Data Exploration: Through the use of interactive features in Power BI and Tableau, analysts will explore the data to uncover trends, patterns, and anomalies. This exploration can lead to valuable insights that drive decision-making.
- Data Cleaning and Transformation: Before analysis can begin, data often needs to be cleaned and transformed to ensure accuracy and consistency. Analysts will likely spend time preparing the data within both tools to make it suitable for analysis.
- Presentation of Findings: Finally, the findings of the analysis will be presented to stakeholders, often through the creation of comprehensive reports or presentations. Both Power BI and Tableau offer features for sharing and presenting insights with others.

The workshop will enable participants to collaborate efficiently and share their analytics findings effectively, emphasizing the importance of communication and teamwork in a data-driven environment.
