(Under IQAC)

Event: COVID AWARENESS PROGRAM

Date/ Day /Time: 09.07.2021, Wednesday

Place: Choviswadi Village

No. of Participants: 06

Introduction:

Dr. DY Patil School of Management Lohegaon visits to Choviswadi for multiple activities. In this activity covid awareness program included. In the Covid awareness program. As we navigate through these unprecedented times, it's essential to stay informed and proactive in protecting ourselves and our communities against the Covid-19 virus. In this program, we'll delve into vital information regarding prevention, symptoms, vaccination, and strategies for maintaining well-being during this challenging period. Let's unite in our efforts to combat the spread of Covid-19 and safeguard the health and safety of everyone around us.

Objectives of the program:

1. Educating the public about the signs and symptoms of Covid-19 & importance of Vaccination
2. Promoting preventive measures such as hand hygiene, mask-wearing, and social distancing.
3. Encouraging vaccination to reduce the spread of the virus and protect individuals and communities.

4. Dispelling myths and misinformation about Covid-19.
5. Empowering individuals to make informed decisions about their health and safety.
6. Supporting vulnerable populations with targeted education and resources.
7. Fostering community engagement and cooperation to combat the pandemic effectively.

Photographs of Event:

Rural community being guided to follow Covid Appropriate Behaviour by using sanitizer and mask and keeping distance

Program Outcomes; -

Increased Covid awareness benefits society in several ways:

1. Prevention of Transmission: When individuals are aware of how Covid spreads, they are more likely to practice measures such as wearing masks, practicing good hand hygiene, and maintaining physical distance, thereby reducing the transmission of the virus within communities.
2. Early Detection and Treatment: Awareness about Covid symptoms prompts individuals to seek testing and medical care promptly if they suspect they have been infected. Early detection and treatment can help prevent severe illness and reduce the burden on healthcare systems.
3. Reduced Stigma and Discrimination: Covid awareness campaigns can help dispel myths and misconceptions about the virus, reducing stigma and discrimination against affected individuals or communities.
4. Improved Compliance with Public Health Measures: When people understand the rationale behind public health measures such as lockdowns, travel restrictions, and vaccination campaigns, they are more likely to comply, leading to more effective control of the pandemic.
5. Support for Vulnerable Populations: Increased awareness can lead to greater support and resources being allocated to vulnerable populations who are disproportionately affected by Covid, such as the elderly, immune compromised individuals, and those in low-income communities.
6. Promotion of Mental Health and Well-being: Covid awareness campaigns often include information on coping strategies, mental health resources, and ways to stay connected with others while physically distancing. This can help mitigate the psychological impact of the pandemic on individuals and communities.

Date/ Day /Time: 01.12.2021 at 4.00pm

Place: Charholi Village

Total No. of Participants-11

Introduction:-

HIV/AIDS remains a global health challenge, affecting millions of people worldwide. The initiative was launched in response to the ongoing need for increased awareness, education, and advocacy to combat the HIV/AIDS pandemic.

Objectives:

1. Raise awareness about HIV/AIDS transmission, prevention, and treatment.
2. Provide accurate and up-to-date information to dispel myths and misconceptions.
3. Advocate for policies that support access to HIV testing, treatment, and care.
4. Eradicate stigma and discrimination associated with HIV/AIDS

Details of the Program:

The program commenced with an introductory session, wherein the basics of AIDS were explained using presentations. This was followed by interactive sessions facilitated by healthcare professionals, who elaborated on the modes of transmission and the importance of prevention measures such as practicing safe sex, avoiding sharing needles, and getting tested regularly.

Furthermore, personal hygiene practices were highlighted, emphasizing the importance of proper sanitation and hygiene in preventing infections. Role-playing activities were conducted to simulate real-life scenarios and demonstrate appropriate ways to support individuals living with AIDS without discrimination.

To ensure engagement and understanding among students, quizzes and group discussions were organized, allowing them to ask questions and clarify doubts. Additionally, informational pamphlets and brochures were distributed to serve as reference materials for further learning.

Program Outcomes:

1. Outreach and Participation: The initiative reached a diverse audience through its various programs, with active participation from schools, healthcare professionals, and community members.
2. Knowledge Improvement: Pre- and post-assessments conducted during education programs demonstrated a significant increase in knowledge about HIV/AIDS transmission, prevention, and treatment among participants.

Photograph:

REPORT

(Under IQAC)

Event Name: Menstrual Hygiene and Nutrition Awareness Program
Date: 05.03.2022
Day: Saturday
Time: Afternoon 5.30pm
Place: BVG Ladies, Charholi
Total Number of Participants: 12

Introduction:

Menstrual hygiene and nutrition are fundamental aspects of women's health and well-being. However, in many communities, including Labour Society, Pune, there remains a lack of awareness and accessibility to proper menstrual hygiene products and nutritious food. Recognizing these challenges, initiatives focusing on menstrual hygiene and nutrition are crucial for promoting women's health and empowerment.

Objectives of the Program:

1. To raise awareness about menstrual hygiene practices and their importance for women's health.
2. To educate participants about the significance of nutrition during menstruation and its impact on overall well-being.
3. To provide information on menstrual hygiene products and their proper usage.
4. To dispel myths and misconceptions surrounding menstruation and nutrition.
5. To empower women and girls with knowledge and resources to manage their menstrual health and nutrition effectively.

Details of the Program:

The Menstrual Hygiene and Nutrition Awareness Program with BVG Ladies at Charholi, commenced at afternoon with an introductory session outlining the objectives of the program. Professors and volunteers facilitated discussions and interactive sessions on menstrual hygiene practices, nutrition requirements during menstruation, and the importance of adopting healthy eating habits.

The program included demonstrations on proper menstrual hygiene product usage, distribution of menstrual hygiene kits, and informative sessions on dietary recommendations for maintaining optimal nutrition during menstruation. Additionally, participants had the opportunity to ask questions and share their experiences, fostering an open dialogue on menstrual health and nutrition-related topics.

Glimpses:

Students and Faculties taking session on Nutrition and Menstrual health

Prof. Varsha Patel Empowering women and distributing sanitary pads

Program Outcomes:

1. Increased awareness among participants about the importance of menstrual hygiene and nutrition for women's health.
2. Enhanced knowledge about proper menstrual hygiene practices and available menstrual hygiene products.
3. Empowerment of women and girls to make informed choices regarding their menstrual health and nutrition.
4. Strengthened community support and collaboration towards promoting women's health and well-being.
5. Identification of ongoing needs and potential areas for further education and support in menstrual hygiene and nutrition.

Community Feedback:

Feedback from participants in the Menstrual Hygiene and Nutrition Awareness Program was positive, with many expressing gratitude for the opportunity to learn and discuss these important topics openly.

Participants noted that the program provided valuable information and resources that would positively impact their menstrual health and overall well-being. Additionally, community members expressed a desire for more such initiatives in the future to continue addressing the needs of women and girls in Shikrapur Lande Vasti.

Conclusion:

The Menstrual Hygiene and Nutrition Awareness Program with ladies of BVG at Charholi, Pune, served as a valuable platform for promoting women's health and empowerment. By addressing issues related to menstrual hygiene and nutrition, the program contributed to fostering a healthier and more informed community. Continued efforts and collaboration are essential to sustain the momentum and further support women and girls in managing their menstrual health and nutrition effectively.

Introduction:

Field trip aimed to explore into the multifaceted issues surrounding women, utilizing creative expression as a lens to examine topics such as witch hunting, maternal health, women's liberation, and violence against women. Set in Pune, a city rich in culture and diversity, the event provided a platform for participants to engage with these critical issues through artistic mediums.

Objectives of the program:

1. To immerse participants in various forms of creative expression related to women's issues.
2. To deepen our understanding of how art can be used as a tool for raising awareness
3. To foster dialogue, and advocating for gender equality.
4. To engage with diverse forms of creative expression

Description:

Our field trip commenced with a poetry reading session where talented student poets shared their verses addressing themes such as body positivity and gender-based violence. The emotive power of their words resonated deeply with the audience, sparking conversations about the societal challenges faced by women. Following the poetry reading, we performed a skit, which a thought-provoking play was focusing on the intersectional experiences of women from diverse backgrounds. Through compelling storytelling and the performances, the play highlighted the complexities of gender dynamics and the importance of solidarity among women. In the afternoon, we arranged a small dance workshop where participants explored feminist choreography. Led by a skilled student, performers demonstrated how movement can be used to convey messages of empowerment, resistance, and self-expression. Through collaborative dance routines, we celebrated the strength and resilience of women.

Glimpses of the program:

Program Outcomes (Benefits to society):

The program succeeded in raising awareness about health issues and preventive measures among labourers. The community members were empowered with knowledge and resources to take charge of their health and well-being. Through education and counselling, labourers were motivated to adopt healthier lifestyles and dietary habits. The program fostered a sense of unity and cooperation among labourers, promoting a healthier and more connected community. By involving both faculty and students, the program laid the foundation for continued efforts towards community health and wellness in the future.

Feedback from a community member regarding the Community Health & Wellness Program:

"I am deeply thankful for the program organized by Dr. D Y Patil School of Management. Educational sessions enlightened us about hygiene and nutrition. Fitness activities and yoga boosted both physical and mental well-being. Most importantly, the program fostered a sense of community spirit." - Sumit Tapkir

Feedback from Community Person:

Mrs. Deshmukh, a member of the local community, expressed her gratitude for organizing such an enlightening event. She mentioned that prior to the event, she was unaware of the various financial schemes available for women.

“The detailed explanations and interactive sessions helped her understand the significance of financial independence and how these schemes could positively impact her life. She also appreciated the organizers for their efforts in simplifying complex information and providing hands-on assistance.” -Mrs Rekha

Mrs. Sunita stated that she now feels empowered to explore and utilize these schemes to improve her economic status and contribute to her family's well-being. She expressed her eagerness to share her newfound knowledge with other women in her community, thus amplifying the impact of the event

Conclusion:-

Women get to know about various aspects of financial concepts. Especially investment avenues like Post office Savings, Gold, Shares, SIP, Fixed Deposit and Recurring Deposit. Their enthusiasm led our students to share information and our students also got to know about women challenges in the society.
