7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

BEST PRACTICE-1

A) Title of the practice: Vasudaiva Kutumbakam- Socioeconomic activities

1. Objectives

- To promote a sense of community, compassion and raise awareness about the challenges faced by the elderly and underprivileged children.
- To bring joy and cheer to the residents of an old age home and a Balak Ashram
- To interact with the residents, engage them in activities, and provide them with companionship and support.

2. Context:

- In the pursuit of its commitment to community welfare, DYPSON organized visits to various oldage homes, aashrams, schools. The initiative aimed to alleviate some of the challenges faced by the elderly residents, children and the people in the society. By providing essential items, DYPSON sought to make a meaningful impact on their lives, offering awareness, comfort and realization of the issues and the ways to tackle them.
- The social visits were organized by the faculties with volunteering students from DYPSON. The team consisted of individuals from diverse backgrounds, including students, professionals, and retirees. The groups were united by a shared passion for community service and a desire to make a positive impact on the lives of others.

3.The practice:

- The old age home selected for the visit housed a diverse group of elderly individuals. Residents shared their life stories, highlighting experiences of solitude, health challenges, and the impact of changing family dynamics.
- The visit provided the residents with fruits and blankets with a company and support.
- The Balak Ashram hosted children from varied backgrounds, including orphans, those with single parents facing economic hardships, and those rescued from difficult circumstances. Interactions with the children through educational activities, storytelling, and games shed light on their dreams, aspirations, and the resilience they exhibited despite their challenging circumstances.

- The visit provided the residents with food, fruits, blankets, companionship, and support.

4. Evidence of success:

- Engaging with the residents of the old age home and children in the Balak Ashram has allowed the students to develop a deeper sense of empathy and compassion.
- These activities gave the students insights about cleanliness, rising pollution, the importance of tree plantation and many others.
- Interacting with diverse groups of people, enhances the students' interpersonal skills.
- Organizing and executing a social initiative like this requires teamwork and collaboration. The students likely had to work together to plan, coordinate logistics, and distribute resources effectively, fostering a sense of teamwork.
- The overall experience could contribute to the personal growth of the students, helping them develop a sense of purpose, social consciousness and a commitment to making a positive impact in their community.

5. Problems encountered and resources required:

- Raising of funds: To convince students and faculty members and collecting sufficient amount from students and faculty members in a stipulated amount of time.

Report on “Food and Blanket distribution-Founder’s Day”

Date: 22nd December 2023

Participants: MBA I Year and II year Students, Faculty Members

The Dr. D.Y. Patil School of Management held a “Food and Blanket Distribution” event for those in need on Founder's Day, guided by the Director Prof. (Dr.) E. B. Khedkar. This initiative aimed to honour the founding principles of the institute by supporting less fortunate community members.

The event took place on December 22, 2023, with enthusiastic involvement from students, faculty, and staff. Participants distributed essential food items and blankets to disadvantaged individuals in the local area.

Families in need received vital food supplies, including rice, lentils, vegetables, and packaged goods, ensuring access to nutritious meals. Blankets were also given to vulnerable individuals, providing warmth and comfort during the winter months. This initiative significantly impacted recipients, helping them meet their basic needs and reinforcing the institute's commitment to social responsibility and community service. The food supplies, blankets, other groceries were also given to the BVG support staff at the institute.

The Dr. D.Y. Patil School of Management expresses heartfelt gratitude to Director Prof. (Dr.) E. B. Khedkar for his visionary leadership and steadfast support in organizing the event. A special thank you goes to all the volunteers and participants for their dedication and compassion in serving the community.
