REPORT ON "Republic Day Celebration"

Date: 26th January 2025

Venue: Oval ground

Participants: MBA I Year and II year Students, Faculty Members

The Republic Day celebration at Dr. D Y Patil School of Management was a spectacular event that united students, faculty, and staff in a shared sense of patriotism and solidarity. The event was designed to honour the adoption of India's Constitution and to foster pride in the nation's democratic principles.

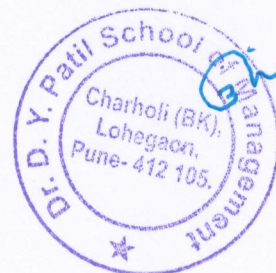

The day was marked with great excitement and enthusiasm, featuring various events and activities that celebrated the values of democracy and national pride. The campus was beautifully decorated with tricolour flags, balloons, and posters emphasizing the importance of Republic Day. The celebration commenced at 09.00 am with the hoisting of the national flag by Prof. (Dr.) E. B. Khedkar. The ceremony included the singing of the national anthem, which filled the atmosphere with a sense of pride and patriotism.

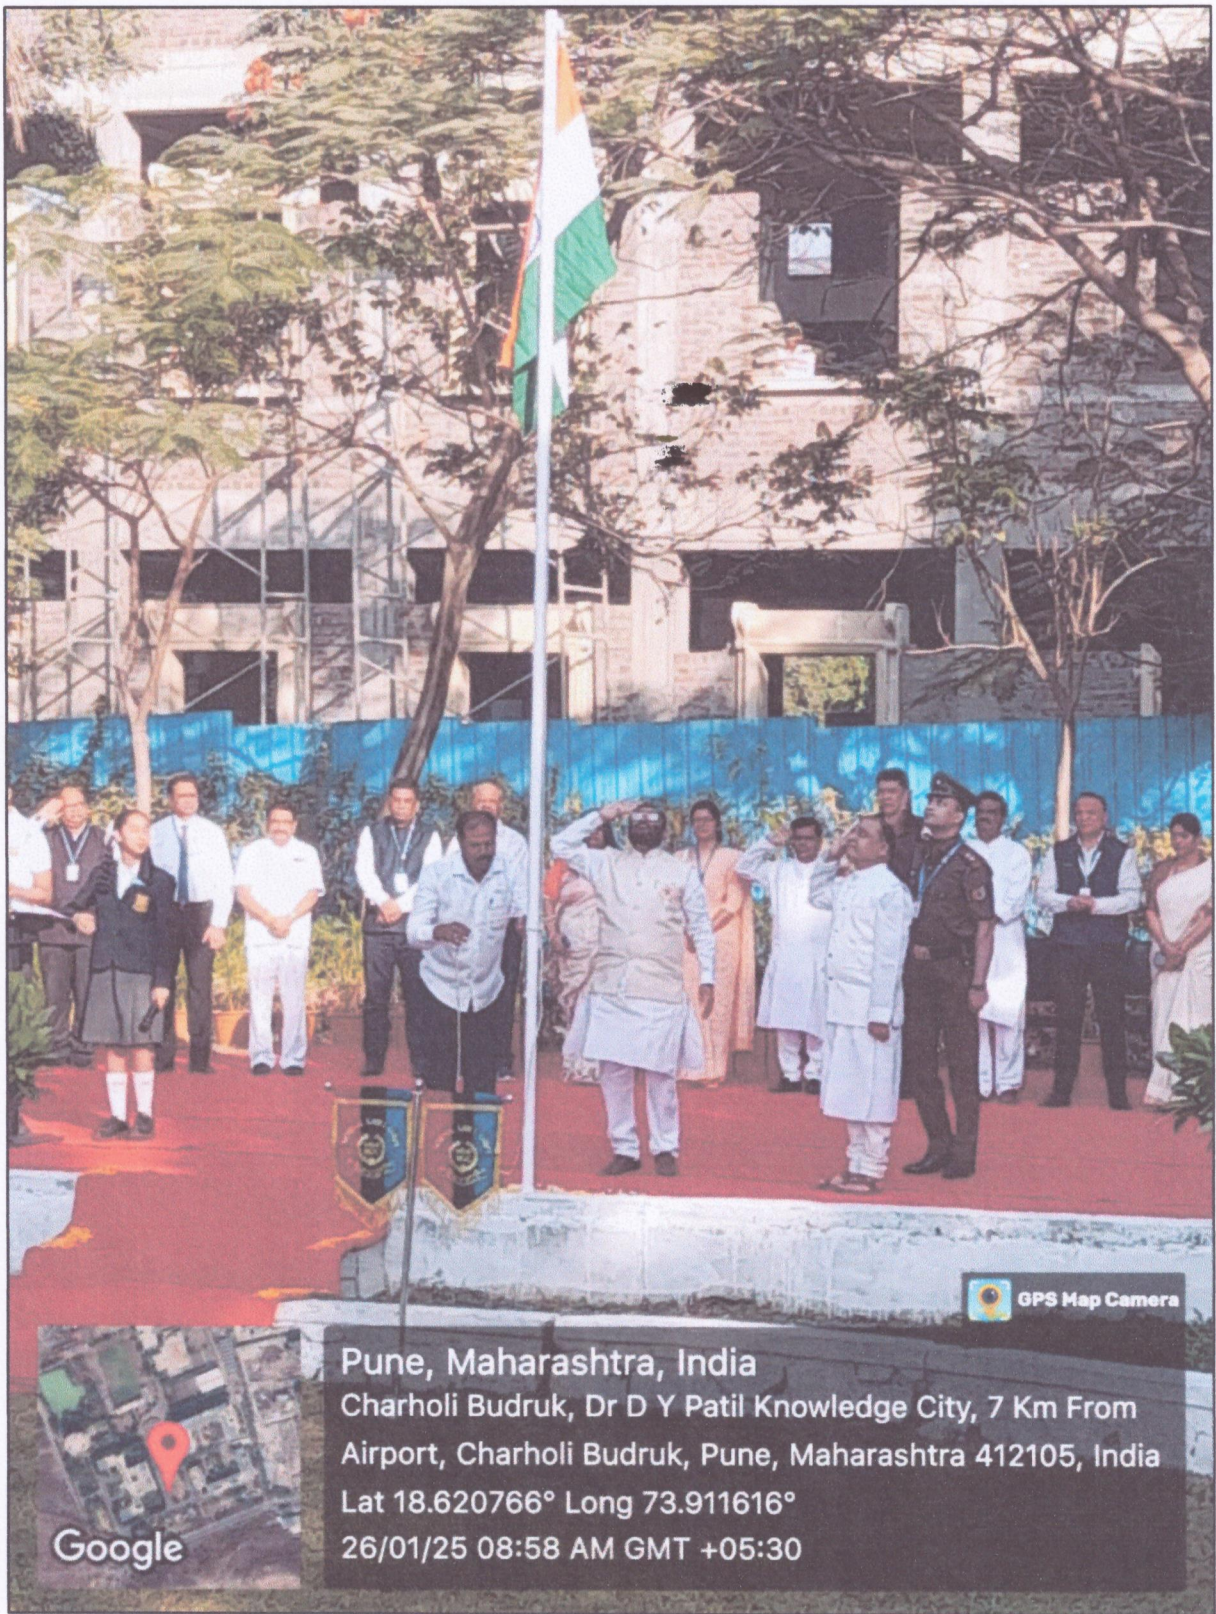

After the flag hoisting a march past was conducted by the campus security guards which honoured our national flag with the beats of drums from the band and eye-catching synchronization which showed the efforts put in by the security to organize the well-coordinated march past.

The NCC cadets also performed a well-coordinated march past including various formations displaying the discipline and synchronization of the forces.

Prof. (Dr.) Khedkar delivered an inspiring speech focusing on the importance of civic responsibility and the role of youth in nation-building. Sir emphasized the need to uphold the values enshrined in the Constitution and encouraged students to contribute positively to society. He highlighted the achievements of our country in the recent times and by the various institutes in the campus.

Following are some glimpses of the event.

(Under IQAC)

Date: 06/06/2024

Date: 05th June 2024

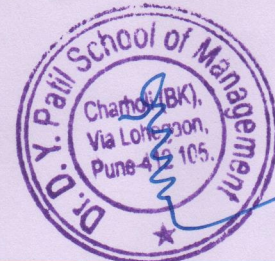

Venue: Near Parking Area

On June 5, 2024, Dr D Y Patil School of Management celebrated World Environment Day by hosting a tree plantation event aimed at fostering environmental awareness and contributing to global efforts against climate change. This initiative sought to enhance the green landscape of our campus, educate participants about the critical role of trees, and encourage proactive environmental stewardship.

The event commenced at 11:00 AM with students and faculty members engaged in the tree planting activity. Participants were divided into groups, each receiving a sapling and instructions on proper planting techniques.

Post-event activities included establishing a maintenance plan for the newly planted trees, which involved regular watering and care overseen by a team of volunteers. The event's impact was visible through positive vibes and students' keenness in organizing such initiatives in the near future.

Overall, the tree plantation event achieved its objectives. The positive response from the college community underscores the importance of collective action in environmental conservation. Future events will continue to build on this success, further promoting sustainable practices and environmental responsibility.

Report On "Kargil Vijay Diwas"

Date: 26th July 2024

Venue: e classroom

On 26 July 2024, Dr D Y Patil School of Management held a memorable celebration of Kargil Vijay Diwas, marking the 25th anniversary of India's victory in the Kargil War. The event was honoured by the presence of Prof. (Dr.) O P Haldar, Dean, and an esteemed ex-service person of the Indian Airforce. The event brought together students, faculty, and staff to pay tribute to the valour and sacrifices of the Indian Armed Forces.

The event commenced with a warm welcome from Dr. Shreekala Bachhav, HOD. Prof. (Dr.) O P Haldar emphasized the significance of Kargil Vijay Diwas in fostering national pride and remembrance. The Dean highlighted the importance of acknowledging the bravery of soldiers and the need to inspire the younger generation with their stories of courage.

Dr. Haldar, a decorated ex-service person of the Indian Army, delivered an inspiring keynote speech. He shared personal anecdotes and insights from the Kargil War, offering a vivid recount of the challenges faced and the strategic brilliance of the Indian Armed Forces. The address was a compelling narrative of heroism, camaraderie, and the unyielding spirit of the soldiers who fought to safeguard the nation.

The Kargil Vijay Diwas celebration at the institute was a resounding success, thanks to the engaging contributions of Dr. Haldar and the enthusiastic participation of students and faculty. The event served as a poignant reminder of the sacrifices made by the Indian Armed Forces and reinforced the importance of patriotism and national pride.

Dr. Shreekala concluded the event with a note of gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) O P Haldar for sharing his experiences and to all those who contributed to making the day memorable. The celebration left a lasting impression on all attendees, inspiring a renewed appreciation for the values of courage and sacrifice.

Report On "Faculty Exchange with ASEZ WAO (under MOU)"

Date: 11th August 2024

Venue: Church of God, Viman Nagar

ASEZ (Save the Earth A To Z) WAO (We Are One), Viman Nagar organized the 22nd ASEZ WAO Environment Forum on the 60th Anniversary of Church of God on 11 August 2024 at Church of God, Viman Nagar. The objective of organizing this forum was to generate awareness amongst youth regarding the environment conservation and the steps they can take to protect mother nature. The attendees were the ASEZ WAO volunteers from India and South Korea.

The guest speakers for the session were Prof. (Dr.) E. B. Khedkar, Director, Dr D Y Patil School of Management, Mr. Mangesh Dighe, Environment Officer at Pune Municipal Corporation, Mr. Sarang Yadwadkar, Environmental Activist, Mrs. Divya Chavan Jachak, Environmental Activist.

The event started with welcome of the guests and the address of the organizers. The organizers welcomed the guests and felicitated them. The organizers requested the guests to address the gathering of the ASEZ WAO volunteers. The forum began with the address of Prof. (Dr.) E. B. Khedkar, Director Dr D Y Patil School of Management, as he talked about the environment challenges faced by the World and Maharashtra and Pune in particular. He talked about the increasing air and water pollution in the city. He also mentioned the measures for decreasing the pollution and we can do as citizens to reduce our share in pollution. Prof. (Dr.) Khedkar also praised the volunteer of ASEZ WAO for their work regarding environmental awareness and various activities carried out by them such as cleanliness campaigns, relief efforts during floods in Pune and so on.

Next, Mrs. Divya Jachak Chavan spoke about the various activities she is conducting with school children to make them aware about the pollution effects and how they can become better citizens and help the cause of environment protection.

Mr. Sarag Yadwadkar talked about how the Mula-Mutha riverbed is encroached in Pune by various illegal structures and its effect on the city. He also stressed that the river beautification process would further result in encroachment and pose a danger to the river, its biodiversity and the city.

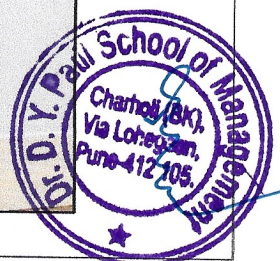

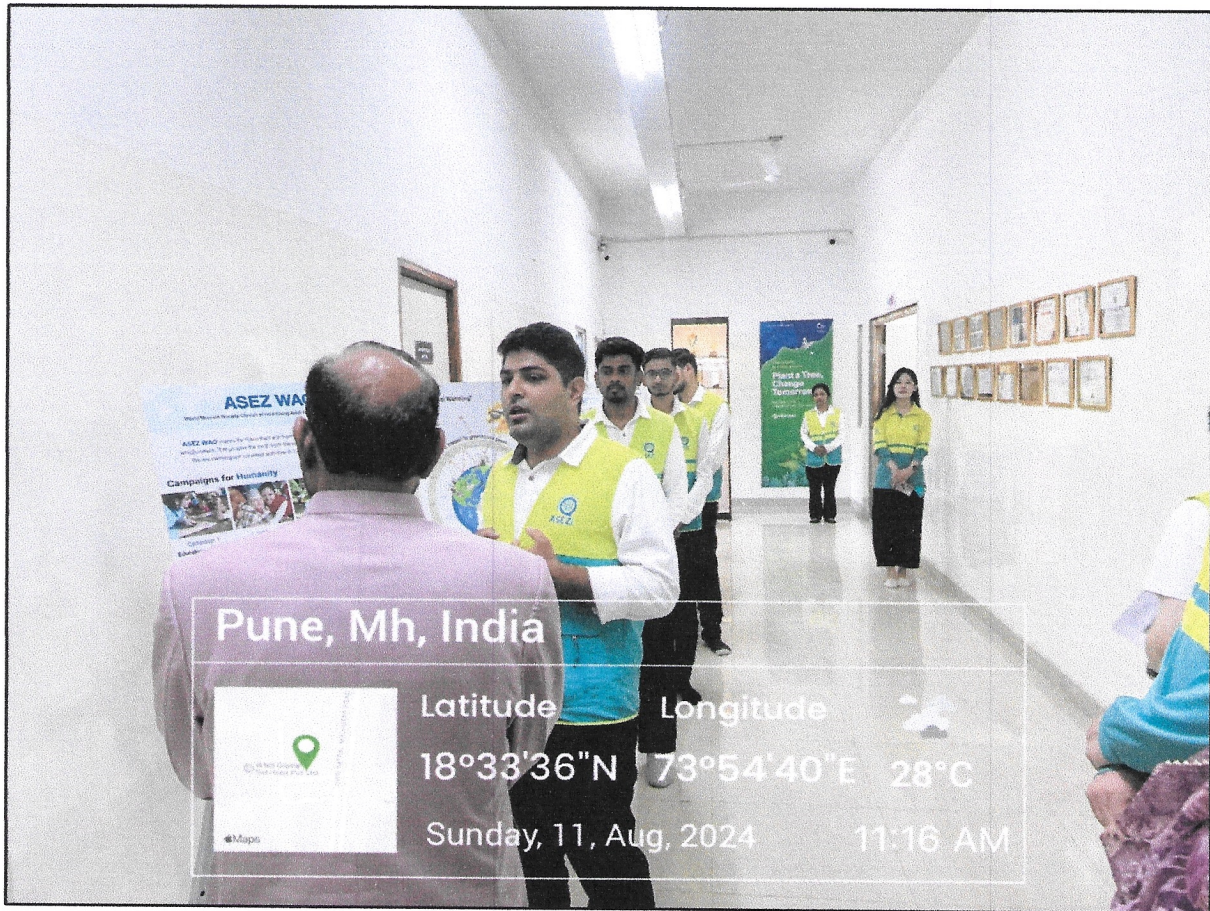

Mr. Mangesh Dighe talked about the Pune Municipal Corporation's (PMS) role in protecting the environment in Pune by organizing various cleanliness drives to maintain the environment in Pune.

He also talked about the various initiatives the PMC is taking for protecting the environment, cleanliness and generating awareness amongst the citizens.

The organizers thanked all the guests for accepting the invitation and addressing the forum.

The celebration of Ganesh Chaturthi, or Ganpati, has a rich history that spans centuries. This Hindu festival honours Lord Ganesh. Ganesh festival is a widely celebrated festival in Maharashtra, some states of India as well as some parts of the World. Pune being the origin place of the Ganesh festival it is celebrated with great enthusiasm and cultural life, celebrated with increasing fervour and creativity. The festival has various social and cultural activities as a part of the it, including theatrical performances, music, and dance.

Dr D Y Patil School of Management as every year also celebrated the Ganesh festival at the campus. The 'Sthapana' of the Ganesh idol was done on 07 September at the common area in the Dental building on the occasion of 'Shri Ganesh Chaturthi'. Theron everyday aarti was carried out in the morning and evening along with prasad distribution.

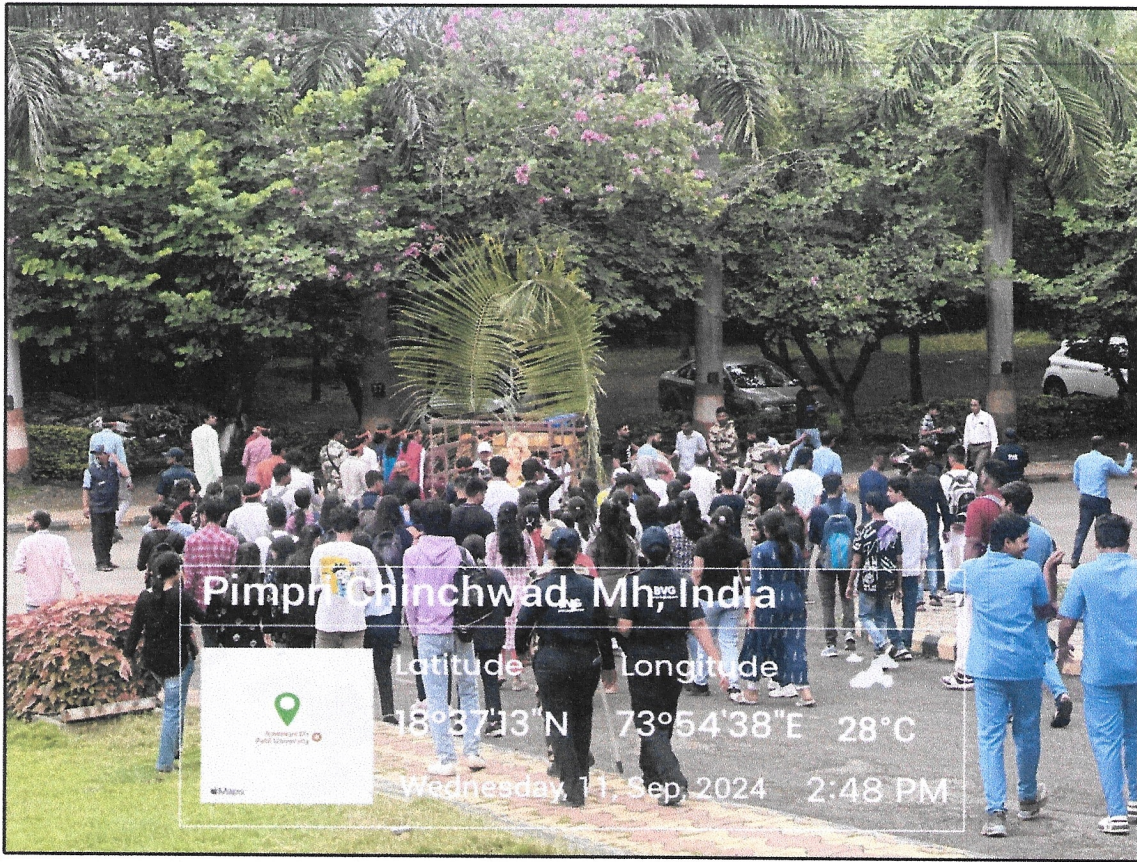

The campus Ganesh festival is of 5 days and on 11th September 2024 Ganesh Visarjan Procession was carried out throughout the campus. First 'Aarti' was carried out and the prasad was distributed amongst students, faculties and the people present there. After clicking pictures with the idol the faculties and students carried the Ganesh idol to the tempo and placed it amongst the decoration for the procession.

The Ganesh idol was carried in a tempo and the students and faculties participated and danced displaying cultural games like 'Fugdi', 'Lezhim', etc. The main attraction was playing of the 'Dhol-Tasha' during the procession. The procession started at 01.30 pm and lasted up to 03.00 pm. The students, faculties and support staff bid adieu to the Lord Ganesh with teary eyes. The procession started from the Dental building going around the whole campus and ended at the campus entrance from where the Ganesh idol was taken to a tank at Alandi for immersion.

Report on “Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti”

Date: 04th October 2024

Venue: e-classroom

Participants: MBA I, II Year Students and Faculty Members

On October 4, 2024, DYPSOM celebrated Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti and Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti with great enthusiasm and reverence. These two leaders, Mahatma Gandhi and Lal Bahadur Shastri, played pivotal roles in India's struggle for independence and nation-building. The celebrations aimed to honour their contributions and promote values of peace, non-violence, and leadership among students.

A brief speech was delivered by Director Prof. (Dr.) E. B. Khedkar sir highlighting Gandhiji's philosophy of non-violence and his vision for a united India. Students recited famous quotes of Mahatma Gandhiji, emphasizing his teachings on truth and peace.

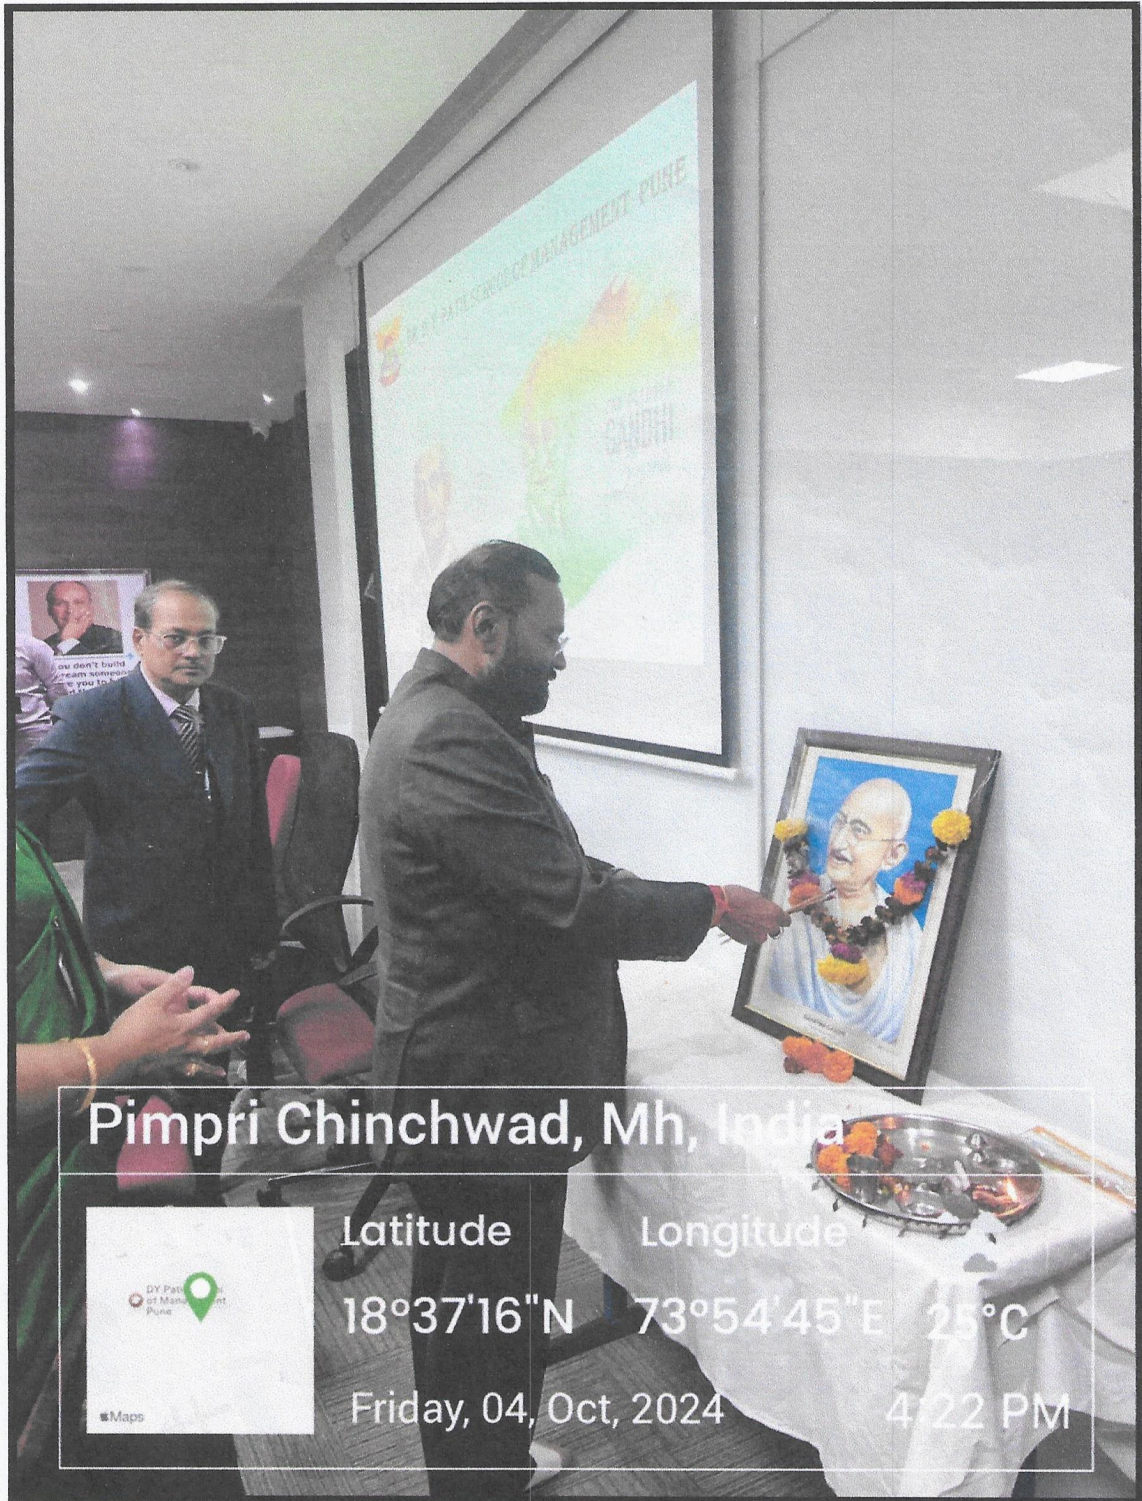

Director sir also spoke about Lal Bahadur Shastriji's leadership during the Indo-Pak War of 1965 and his slogan "Jai Jawan Jai Kisan," which resonates even today. Participants discussed his role in promoting agricultural self-sufficiency.

The celebrations of Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti and Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti at DYPSOM were a resounding success, fostering a spirit of patriotism and reflection on the values these leaders stood for. The event not only educated participants about their legacies but also inspired a commitment to embody their ideals in daily life.

Venue: e-Classroom

Dr. D.Y. Patil School of Management, Pune hosted a vibrant and culturally rich celebration on the pretext of Diwali, one of the most significant festivals in the Hindu calendar. Diwali commemorates the victory of good over evil and is celebrated with great fervour and enthusiasm across India.

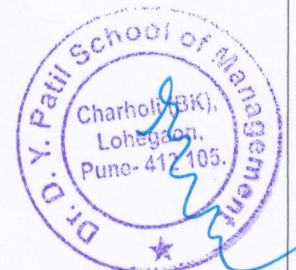

The event organized by DYPSON provided an opportunity for the community to come together, rejoice, and partake in the festivities. The college recently commemorated the auspicious festival of Diwali with immense enthusiasm and gusto. The celebration aimed to honour the victory of good over evil and foster a sense of unity among the students and faculty members.

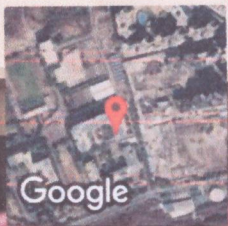

The Diwali celebration was a testament to the college's vibrant cultural tapestry, promoting harmony and unity among the diverse student body and faculty. It served as a platform for students to embrace their heritage and create lasting memories within the college community.

On the occasion of Diwali sweets were distributed to the non-teaching staff and faculties.
